

Sarah McBane, Pharm.D., was elected as President of the California Pharmacists Association. Her election to this important post reflects her abiding interest in advancing the scope of pharmacy practice, endeavors in community and legislative outreach to insure the SB 493, creating an Advanced Practice Pharmacist and expanding the scope of pharmacy practice, to become law in California. Dr. McBane was also selected to serve on the American College of Clinical Pharmacy advisory committee.