

Nina Haste and Andrew Chang, have completed their Ph.D. degree portion of the Pharm.D./Ph.D. Program at UC San Diego. Accordingly, Drs. Haste and Chang are now completing the fourth year of their pharmacy studies-the advanced practice experiences and expect to have their degree requirements completed in early 2013. Dean Taylor noted that “Drs. Haste and Chang will be the second and third pharmacy student at UC San Diego to receive the joint degree.”
