

Ron D'Ulisse Pharm.D.

Research Summary

Dr. D'Ulisse is the course chair for "Pediatric Pharmacotherapy" in Skaggs School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences. He has served as a Clinical Pharmacist (PICU & Hem/Onc clinical pharmacist) at Rady Children's Hospital since 2001, evaluating medication orders, providing recommendations to optimize care, and educating 4th year pharmacy students and RCHSD pediatric residents as a preceptor. He also has served as an Inpatient Pharmacy Manager at Rady Children's Hospital since 2006, overseeing operations of the inpatient pharmacy. Dr. D'Ulisse is an EPIC credentialed trainer and a member of the Pediatric Pharmacy Advocacy Group.

Academic Achievements

University of Southern California, Doctorate Degree in Pharmacy (2000).

Teaching

Pediatric Pharmacotherapy (SPPS 267)

Key Contributions

C.A.R.E.S. award from physician at RCHSD (2017), C.A.R.E.S. award from Senior administrator at RCHSD (2011), C.A.R.E.S. award from Surgical unit RN Manager at RCHSD (2010), C.A.R.E.S. award from PICU nurses at RCHSD (2006), Magic award from NICU RN Manager at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center (2001).