

Ali Rezaei, Pharm.D.

Research Summary

Dr. Rezaei is a licensed compounding pharmacist in California with a Doctorate of Pharmacy and over fourteen years of experience providing customized pharmacy services in a community retail setting. He is the Founder and Staff Compounding Pharmacist of King's Pharmacy and Compounding Center, where he consults with physicians and patients on medication dosage, drug interactions, medical equipment, disease management and potential side effects of prescription and OTC medication while dispensing and compounding over 500 prescriptions weekly. Dr. Rezaei is also a skilled public speaker and trainer and has presented company-wide in-service training seminars on topics such as: patient education and advocacy, pharmaceutical ethics, the role of the retail pharmacist, emerging medications, medication safety, and compounded medications.

Academic Achievements

University of California, Irvine, B.S. in Biological Sciences (2002), University of California San Diego, PharmD (2006), Professional Compounding Centers of America, Certifications in Compounding (2006).

Teaching

Dosage Forms and Drug Delivery Systems (SPPS 225)